

I would really like the no call list remain the same because it's very nice not to have all the telemarketers calling especially during the supper hours.